#10 I Will Remember

Psalm 77:11,12

I will remember the deeds of the Lord;
yes, I will remember your miracles of long ago.
I will consider all your works
and meditate on all your mighty deeds.

Lesson 10 Building Ebeneezers

“Remembering doesn’t come naturally. Satan will tempt us to forget God’s faithfulness. That’s why we must take action and build up Ebeneezers: visible, physical reminders of invisible, spiritual truths...We must tie a string around our index finger, so to speak, so in the midst of daily stress, we remember what’s real. Whether it’s a page jotted in a journal, dates noted in a Bible margin, letters, photographs, calendars, trees planted deep, flags raised high, mementoes in a glass case – or as in biblical times, ordinary rocks – such tools can remind us of who God is and what He has done. They are witnesses from the past to give us confidence for the present: God is reliable. He can be trusted. He is with us...God does the miracles. We do the markers so we remember to trust Him for more...They prompt waves of gratitude to God.
